- (b) to give effect to any instructions consistent with the provisions of this Law which may be given by the Visitor in consequence of a visitation.

PART IV

Disciplinary Procedure

28.

(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of the conditions of service made pursuant to section 7 (e) of this Law, if it appears to the Council that there are sufficient grounds for believing that the services of any member of the academic or non-academic senior staff of the college are no longer required for reasons either of misconduct or inability on the part of such member of staff to perform the functions of his office or employment, the Council shall serve on the person concerned a notice in writing of its intention to remove him stating clearly the misconduct or inability complained of and requiring the person to submit his defence against the accusation in writing to the appropriate investigating committee

(2) Where the misconduct or inability relates to—

- (a) the dean of a school;
- (b) the Registrar; or
- (c) a head of Department or Division,

the Council shall set up a committee which shall consist of such members of the Council and of the Academic Board as the Council may decide to investigate the alleged misconduct or inability and report its findings to the Council.

(3) Where the misconduct or inability relates to any other member of the academic or non-academic senior staff or any other senior employee of the College, the Council shall direct the Provost to set up a committee which may be presided over by him, to investigate the alleged misconduct or inability and report its findings to the Council.

(4) Where the person whose alleged misconduct or inability is to be investigated is a member of the senior academic staff, the investigating committee set up under subsection (2) or (3) of this section shall include in its membership, such number of representatives of the Academic Board as the Council or the Provost, as the case may be, may think adequate.

(5) A person whose conduct is the subject of an inquiry under this section shall be entitled to appear in person before, and be heard by, the investigating committee.

(6) If the Council, after considering the report of an investigating committee decides that the person concerned shall be removed, the Council may remove him by notice in writing signed by the Registrar on the direction of the Council, and the Council shall cause the notice to be served on the person concerned as soon as possible after the signing thereof.

(7) If it appears to the Council or the Provost, as the case may be, that the person whose conduct or performance is being investigated by a committee set up by the Council or by the Provost should be suspended from office or employment during the continuance of the investigation, the Council or the Provost, may be noticed in writing signed by the Registrar prohibit that person from exercising the functions of his office or employment until the completion of the investigation and decision of the Council.

(8) A person suspended under the provisions of subsection (7) of this section shall be entitled to receive only one-half of his salary or emolument of his office or employment during the period of such suspension.

(9) The provisions of this section shall not apply to any employment which may be specifically exempted from the operation of this section by regulations made by the Council from time to time.

(10) Members of all other categories of the staff of the College other than those mentioned in the foregoing provisions of this section shall, for the purpose of discipline, be subject to the authority of the Provost so how-ever that where any member of such staff (except unconfirmed staff) is removed from office or employment by the Provost, such a member shall have a right of appeal to the Council against the removal.

(11) In the exercise of his power under subsections (3) and (10) of this section, the Provost may in any case where he considers it appropriate so to do appoint a disciplinary panel of such number of members of the staff of the College as he may deem necessary to advise him on any particular matter relating to discipline.

(12) (a) Where it appears to the Provost that any student of the College has committed any act of misconduct, he shall cause the matter to be investigated by a Student Disciplinary Committee;

(b) If after considering the report of the Committee the Provost is satisfied that the concerned student be disciplined, he shall without prejudice to any other disciplinary powers conferred on him by statute or regulations direct—

- (i) that the student shall not, during such period as may be specified in the direction, participate in such activities of the College, or make use of such facilities of the College, as may be so specified in the direction;
- (ii) that the activities of the student shall during such period as may be specified in the direction, be restricted in such manner as may be so specified; or
- (iii) that the student be rusticated for such period as may be specified in the direction; and

(c) no student shall be expelled from the College without the approval of the Council.

29. Establishment of schools of the College

The Academic Departments in the college shall be organised in the form of schools in such manner as the Council may from time to time determine.

30. Governor's direction

(1) The Governor may give to the Council directions of a general or specific nature as to the performance by the Council of all or any of its functions and the Council shall give effect to such directions.

(2) Without prejudice to the generality of subsection (1) of this section, the Governor may, in particular give to the Council directions—

- (a) for the purpose of defining in cases of doubt or dispute, the powers of the Council in relation to its functions; and
- (b) relating to the membership and functions of the Academic Board.

31. Regulations

(1) Subject to the provisions of this Law the Academic Board may make regulations providing for—

- (a) the academic management of the College;
- (b) the qualifications necessary for admission to the College; and
- (c) the carrying into effect of any provisions of this Law relating to the functions of the Board.
