

CHAPTER 69 - INTERPRETATION

ARRANGEMENT OF SECTIONS

SECTION

1. Short title.
2. Application.
3. Definitions.

GENERAL PROVISIONS

Commencement, Distance and Time

4. Time of commencement.
5. Measurement of distance.
6. Computation of time.
7. Reference to time.

Repeal, Re-enactment and Amending Legislation

8. Repealed Laws not revived by repealing Law.
9. Repeal and substitution.
10. Reference to the re-enacted provisions.
11. Construction of amending Law.
12. Effect of repealing Law.

Imperial Acts

13. Authorised omission.
14. Authorised omission.

Special Provisions relating to Subsidiary Legislation

15. Use of defined terms in subsidiary legislation.
16. Use of expression "the Law".
17. Exercise of statutory powers between enactment and commencement of Law.
18. Effect of repeal on subsidiary legislation.
19. Application of sections 8, 12 and 18 to Ordinances or Laws becoming void for inconsistency.
20. General provisions with respect to power given to any authority to make orders, regulations and rules of court.
21. Subsidiary legislation may provide for fees and charges and in certain cases for reduction, waiver, or refund thereof.
22. Act for which payment is required and need not be performed till payment be made.
23. Extent of power to issue proclamation.
24. Orders or regulations made by President to over-ride others.
25. Orders or regulations made by Governor to over-ride others.
26. Coming into force of proclamation.
27. Gazette and State Gazette and publication by Government Printer prima facie evidence.

Powers and Appointments

28. Powers to be exercised and duties to be performed from time to time.